

Kurt Fuckenrieder

The dancer, who was born in Sweden and grew up in Austria, was trained at the Ballet School of the Wiener Bundestheater. He impressed with solos in classical ballet, modern dance, folklore and operetta and also showed talent as an actor. He achieved the status of semi-soloist at the Wiener Volksoper and participated as a dancer in shows on German and Austrian television. As an additional qualification he graduated in stage-lighting control and PR.

He does guest performances in Japan, Taiwan, the USA, China, South-Korea, Egypt, Tunisia and all over Europe.

Currently he runs the Verein Ballett der Wiener Volksoper. Apart from that, he is active as a light designer, stage manager and Master of Ceremony at international guest performances of the Vereinigung Wiener Staatsopernballett.

Additionally to being a choreographer and assistant director of ballet evenings, operettas, galas and balls, he is also involved in supporting young talent and chairs the jury at various dance competitions.