

Viera „Vika“ Kozáková

- Dance Styles: modern, jazz and contemporary dance
- Founder and choreographer of dance group Moving Souls
- Started dancing at the age of 6 in private dance school
- A graduate of the Dance and Music Academy (VŠMU) in Bratislava – faculty of Modern dance
- Worked as a teacher at the conservatory J.L.Bellu in Banská Bystrica, the Dance Theatre Bralen, Riverpark Dance School, SZUŠ Liptovský Hrádok and many others
- Worked as a choreographer and manager of dance group RDS Company by 2015
- Won second place in the TV dance competition of individuals MOVE UP 2013
- Collaborated and choreographed many television projects like Xfactor SR, “Zlatý puk”, “Heart for children” and others
- Choreographer of many winning choreographies in modern, contemporary and lyrical dance
- Won title of Slovak choreographer in 2015 and 2017 and title of overall choreographer of 2016 in Competition “Tanecni skupina roka” (Dance Group of the Year)
- With her dance company Moving Souls gained many successes not only in domestic but also foreign dance competitions (competition - Dance Group of the Year - overall winner for 2015, as winners won stay and presentation in New York City; Awards for Best Choreography at Top Dancing 2015 and 2016, Dancestar 2016 and many others)
- Has taught many workshops : New York City, Slovakia, Czech republic, Poland, Hungary, Austria
- In the season September and December 2016 she’s a part of the dance company for French original musical Romeo et Juliette with which she was touring in Asia